My Sophomore year is ended.

Dear Dorothy,

I hope you and Leon have fun when he comes back from camp. I know you like him a lot. I never said a word to him about you. I know you don't want me to. You should go skating when he goes because he is and always looks lonely when he is up at the rink. I wish you would give me his address then I could write to him too. I think he's cute. I wish you and Leon would sometimes come to the Mansion where I am always at. You go down by yourself and usually go home with seven or eight boys by your side. I always have loads of fun there. May and I also go to the "Y" on Saturday and have loads of fun there too. If you would come in once you would have fun with us. Come in on Saturday if you can. I'll look for you at the Mansion some saturday afternoon at 3:00. I'll be looking for you.

Love,
Gladys

ALMA MATER

1. Mounted on the verdant hilltop,
   Looking o'er the town,
   Proudly stands our high school building
   As the sun goes down.

2. Daily youth will tread the pathway
   To its open door,
   Finding there a wealth of learning
   As they did of yore.

3. Thus we dedicate this structure,
   Monument to youth,
   Ever striving, ever learning,
   Loyalty and truth.

CHORUS:
Wilson High School! Wilson High School!
Sing with all your might.
We will rally round the standard
Of the Red and White.

DEDICATION

We, the graduating class of 1949, wish to dedicate our yearbook, "The Wilsonian," to Mr. Carl Constein. We will never forget his sense of humor, sportsmanship, guidance, and hard work. His efforts to promote the welfare of our class have inspired us to achieve greater honors.

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1949

WILLIAM C. KUTZ, B.A., M.A.
Kutztown State Teachers College, Franklin and Marshall College, Columbia University, The Pennsylvania State College, Temple University.

A century ago "Forty-niners" were trekking westward, attracted chiefly by the lure of gold.

Your group of "Forty-niners" can explore, not only the unknown realms of science, but also the larger realms of undiscovered human resources.

Because of the complex social order of living in "One World", the laurels of victory await those who achieve success in World Diplomacy, The Christian Ministry, Social Welfare, Public Education, Journalism and Personnel Work, as well as discovering new wonders in Science and Medicine.

The happiest days of your life were spent in school in surroundings where you were given an opportunity to develop a well-rounded, wholesome personality; where you practiced rights and duties of citizenship in a freedom-loving democracy; where you had a friendly guide helping in determining your life's choice of vocational and avocational interests; where there was a genuine mutual interest in your physical, mental and moral well-being. All these factors were constantly in the minds of your teachers to help you prepare yourself for happy, successful living in tomorrow's world.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM C. KUTZ

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE TO GRADUATES

The faculty members of Wilson High School join me in extending heartiest congratulations and sincere best wishes to the class of '49.

Happiness and success is usually attained by a willingness to give freely of one's talents and efforts. We shall miss you, Forty-niners, your pleasant smiles and warm personalities. You have helped to make this, my first year at Wilson, a most enjoyable one. In giving freely of your services and effort, you have left the school a better place than you found it because of your presence here. Yet yours has been the greater gain. For he who gives much, receives much. It is our fond hope that success may continue to attend your efforts. And that now, as you join that illustrious group of your fellow Wilson Alumni, may the hopes and ideals that have been your birthright continue to guide you and lead you forth to happiness. We shall look for you from time to time and expect you to continue your fine support of Wilson High School and all of its activities.

With best wishes,

"THROUGH THE YEARS"

While paging through a popular book entitled "Great High School Classes," I came across the year 1949. Much to my amazement our class had been chosen as the best example of good high school living.

Not much emphasis was placed on our junior high school activities, but a Mrs. Ayres and a man called "Gus" were mentioned in a faculty note. Leon Moyer, Lois Miller, Ronald Zechman, and Gloria Burdan received the American Legion awards in eighth grade. The following year the 49ers bid an adieu to Mrs. Ayres.

"Silly" was a perfect description of our sophomore year, but our financial status soon changed that to worry. A lovely lady brightened the faculty, namely Mrs. Wildermuth (formerly Miss June Plowfield) and helped make the year a jolly but studious one??? With Ted Hopkins setting the style in knickers and Stanley Steamer Shade toasting bread over a bunsen burner, it must have been a strain on June, as it drove her right out of Wilson.

A movie put some money in our piggy bank, but report cards resulted in a few morbid letters to parents, leaving the dim reality that school was still an institution of learning. For class officers we had some who's who candidates in Leon Moyer, Robert Mull, Janice Hinkle, and Marlene Proger. Five peppy J. V. cheerleaders were picked at the end of the year: Joan Witman, Deone Dupre, Gloria Burdan, Marlene Proger, and Elsa Holl.

Jolly but jerky marked our path on the straight and narrow as juniors. This was a year of new attractions such as class hats and rings, both of them receiving approval from the whole school. The executive department for the year was made up of four commercial students, namely Ronald Zechman, Morris Beebe, Mervin Schroll, and Marlene Proger. A dance called the "Shamrock Swirl" (origin unknown) was a good money maker along with a successful card party. Physics and shorthand were but a mere blot on our report cards. Richard Dry and Barrie Breier initiated Mr. Friend to our algebra classes, even though they never made the Honor Society. Our contributions to the society were Alice Grimes, Marilyn Whitlock, Leon Moyer, Lois Miller, and Claire Gries. An active interest in athletics helped a junior varsity basketball team to gain county recognition. John Hartline's hook shots, Leon Moyer's football catches, and Robert Schoellkopf's two-baggers were big factors in the success of the athletic program. Nancy Kulp, Joan Witman, and Claire Gries helped the girls boost their side of the story. Then came the junior-senior prom, the high-light of the year. Everyone was busy helping to decorate the gym with oriental scenes to make our last event of the year "simply super."

Sophisticated seniors? No, still a little on the daffy side. (For more information on this subject, consult the 12-1 homeroom.) Mervin Schroll blackmailed Mr. Naulty with a picture. We didn't know Mr. Naulty looked so nice in English shorts! The spectator staff members were hounded by Lois (Editor-in-Chief) Miller, who was continually rushing everyone for his article. The same goes for Claire Gries, Editor-in-Chief of the Wilsonian and Mrs. Rollman, advisor of the yearbook. Look out! Here come three cars! Not three cars, but John Hartline's Essex with three horns. (Horns permitted by exclusive permit from Mr. Hess.) Many senior lads and lassies were busy selling hotdogs, ice cream, and soda at the football games. The commercial section dominated the class officers with Ronald Zechman, Leon Moyer, Shirley Kline, and Marlene Proger. Top honor of the year went to Clyde Bensing, president of Student Council. Clyde also writes poems. Jingle Bells, Jingle Bells, here comes Santa and the Christmas Tree Trot.

'Twas time to start thinking of leaving dear old Wilson. Class night, baccalaureate, class trip (Heaven helped New York after we were through) and finally the big day of rejoicing and tears, graduation. Ninety-one "49ers" leave Wilson for the last time. Many of our classmates and pals will see all parts of the world. If you wish to find them, look for the list of top U. S. executives or by the present trend, the idol of a million comic book fiends. Our class tops all in noise (quote Mr. Lloyd Miller) and in making teachers' hair turn grey. But no matter what anyone says, we never had more fun anywhere.

R. J. M.

DEBATING TEAM

The Wilson High School forensic squad again employed this style in which no conclusion is reached. The question for debate this year was "Resolved: That the United Nations now be revised into a federal world government," which was discussed by students of Wilson, Birdsboro, and Mt. Penn.

Several members also participated in the Berks County Jr. Town Meeting of the Air. There were two radio programs in which Alice Grimes, Lois Enders, Lawrence Bard and Clyde Bensing participated.

Other members of the debating team were Claire Gries, Barrie Breier, Marilyn Good, Jane Linsanbigler, Lois Beekey, and Joan Beidler. Alternates were Nancy Brandt, Patricia Finefrock, Doris Adams, Velma Keiser, La Verne Wartluft and Ebba Hagstrom. The faculty advisors for the debating team were Mrs. Viola Beekey, Mr. Lloyd Miller, Mr. Aaron Miller, and Mrs. Jean Rollman.

The fourth year of student government at Wilson has proved successful for the two principal objectives for this year: improvement of better student relationships and the revision of several activities in the point system were achieved.

Through the efforts and supervision of the Council, this year's magazine campaign was brought to a profitable conclusion. A plaque was awarded to Wilson for going over the top in sales. With the proceeds of this campaign, Wilson benefited when the Council purchased three radios and a wire recorder.

Various activities were conducted throughout the year by the Council. A flag pole was erected on the athletic field. Ten students represented Wilson at the Student Council Conference at West Reading. The Council along with the National Honor Society sponsored the Alumni Dance at which William Zimmerly was elected president of the Alumni Association. The Council also conducted dances after the basketball games.

The faculty advisor was Mr. Aaron Miller.

The Wilson Chapter of the National Honor Society introduced the custom of having two induction ceremonies for the incoming members. In addition to continuing its work on the Alumni Association and also the selling of articles from the lost and found department, they initiated a Courtesy Week.

To try to make this society function more actively was the aim of the 1948-49 chapter. The interest in this organization is growing in its own and also in the Berks County Chapter.

Mr. B. A. Hess was the sponsor.

A flash of red and white at the football games—that was the Wilson High School Band. Plenty of zip and pep pronounced this organization a valuable asset to the school. The mid-winter concert and the spring "Night of Music" gave pupils and parents excellent opportunities to witness results of co-operation and talent. Another activity sponsored by the band was the Valentine's Dance. Bright, new uniforms, long and eagerly awaited, were procured this year. Conductor George Wagner's efforts were particularly responsible for a successful year.

The Athletic Council has done a wonderful piece of work in running the sports program at Wilson and a round of praise is well earned. Faculty members include Miss Elizabeth Putt, Mr. Robert Thompson, Mr. Ralph Leininger, Mr. Aaron Miller, Mr. William Brumbach and Mr. Carl Constein.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

During 1948-49 football and basketball season these five seniors have contributed plenty of school spirit for the teams. Peppy cheering and a strong desire to win were the ambitions of the squad. Captain Deone Dupre's "Come on you-all and yell" will long be remembered in the school. The rest of the squad consists of Gloria Burdan, Elsa Holl, Marlene Proger, and Joyce Roth.

J. V. CHEERLEADERS

To this pretty squad of cheerleaders the class of "49" would like to wish all the success possible in the coming year. These lassies have done a splendid job in helping support the J. V. team and cheering them on to victory after victory. The squad includes Eleanor Merkel, Captain; Marilyn Heckman, Jean Wagner, Patrice Good and Lura Pullis.

SALUTE TO SENIORS

LEON MOYER (30)—better known as "Lee" was an outstanding end, making second team all county this year. His 97 yard touchdown run will long be remembered.

MERVIN SCHROLL (34)—"Merv", a great fullback, received little credit for his work. His linebacking and blocking was outstanding.

LEE RADER (36)—our high-scoring lad who led the team with 25 points. Often referred to as the "Star".

CHARLES VON WEINSTEIN (29)—Von played a good game at end. Finally connected for a touchdown by throwing his specialty against Spring City.

JAMES MORRISSEY (38)—capable replacement at any backfield position. Jim enjoyed his best game at Schuylkill Haven.

GENE PARIS (13)—this number jinxed Gene as he was injured most of the season.

RICHARD GOODHART (35)—Dick played an exceptional guard for such a little fellow. Dick was a hard fighter.

CARROLL BINGAMAN (37) — "Bing" played an offensive tackle position but was hampered by a bad knee injury.

JOHN WELLER (23)—John was a hard worker and although he didn't start the games, he played often.

ROBERT MULL (19)—"Bop" finally became an end in the Shillington game and did a wonderful job.

LEE CAKE (26)—never missed a practice for four years. Lee deserves a lot of credit for making the varsity work.

MORRIS BEEBE (10)—Beebe, a tackle, was always ready when needed.
